Mr. JOHNSON, of Louisiana, made following

REPORT :

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of William Pennoyer, report :

The petitioner alleges that he was a soldier of the revolutionary war, and served three months in the year 1779, under Captain Eli Reed. That on the 1st of March, 1780, he enlisted for nine months to serve under said Eli Reed, and served out the time for which he enlisted. That on the 1st of March, 1781, he again enlisted for nine months, under Captain Reuben Scorfield, and served under him until the latter part of July following, when he was taken prisoner, and carried into Jones's island, then in possession of the British army, where he remained a prisoner during the war.

It appears that the allegation of the petitioner, of his service under Captain Scorfield, is discredited by the rolls of that company in the Pension Office, his name not being found thereon. These rolls cannot be rebutted by any testimony whatever, the credit of the record being greater than the testimony of witnesses. The petitioner alleges service under Captain Eli Reed, but the Comptroller's certificate, filed with the papers, discredits the claimant's assertions. This claim not being supported by evidence, the committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the prayer of the petition ought not to be granted.
